Features & Benefits: Cool, classic and timeless are just a few words that describe the new Larsen Collection. The fully upholstered upper wraps your body comfortably while a variety of base options let you customize it to your taste. The Larsen is constructed on a metal frame, with cold-molded foam. Customers can provide their own upholstery or choose from any of Beaufurn's graded-in fabrics. The collection consists of an arm chair and barstool both with three base options; tapered wood legs, sled base or swivel pedestal. The sled and pedestal bases are chrome and the tapered wood legs can be finished in any of Beaufurn's standard wood finishes.
